

Activity: Major Organization

Imagine a major organization which require all sorts of division and roles to function well. There might be:

Sales	Human Resources
Marketing/Advertising	Project Management
Research/Development	Finance and Accounting
Product Improvement	Public Relations
Quality Control	Training and Development

When you consider your top 5 motivations and interests, what strikes you as the best place for you to fit into a major organization? What roles would be most fulfilling for you?

What industries, types of products, services, or passions line up will with your interests?

Pick 1 Activity

Activity: Entrepreneur

Brainstorm a business name and idea for a product or service that you would enjoy bringing to market. Think about what problems you would like to solve with your product or service and who will be your ideal clients.

What types of entrepreneurial ambitions excite you? What were the products or services you selected and how would that impact your client's lives?

When you think of opportunities and challenges with being an entrepreneur, what area do you envision spending most of your time that energizes you?